POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN HIGHER EDUCATION FOR TEACHING AT HIGHER EDUCATION

With a view to improve the quality of teaching and learning in higher education, Government has agreed that in order to ensure that lecturers have the right pedagogical skills and to improve the quality of teaching and learning:

- (a) as from January 2015, a postgraduate diploma in higher learning (with major component in pedagogy) will be a mandatory requirement for all new appointments to the position of full-time lecturer in tertiary education institutions;
- (b) lecturers/senior lecturers and professors already in post would be encouraged to follow refresher courses or continuous professional education courses on teaching and learning methods;
- (c) the Open University of Mauritius will provide online materials for category of teachers at (b) above as well as the part-time lecturers to help them refine their pedagogical skills.

All heads of tertiary institutions are kindly requested to implement the above.
